McVay

Lori McVay is a wife and mom who also happens to have hillbilly roots, a PhD in Sociology, and a deep and abiding love of geeky things. She leads worship at Cross Community Church where her husband is the lead pastor she also reads and watches Netflix waaay too much so she can avoid doing housework.

Worship :
Reverend
Sharon
Norman

Rev. Sharon D. Norman has been championing the worship of the Church for over 25 years with the last sixteen serving in the church of the Nazarene. Sharon currently serves as an associate pastor at Saginaw Valley in Saginaw, MI. Sharon brings and Spirit-filled, rich, and diverse to the conversation and celebration of worship and has two goals: to know Him more and make Him known.

Ladies, from Jr. High and up are invited to come be a part of our ladies' day at MPNAZ. Registration will be from 8:30 – 9:00 am. A light breakfast will be available during that time. Our morning session will begin at 9:00 am with Lori and Sharon. Lunch will be prepared by the men of MPNAZ. There will be entertainment during lunch along with door-prizes. Following lunch, we will have one more opportunity to worship with Sharon and hear from Lori with our afternoon concluding at 4:00PM.
